welcome to

Whitewebbs, Church Road, Kessingland Lowestoft

IDEAL FOR MULTI-GENERATIONAL LIVING William H Brown are thrilled to offer this unique bungalow in the Large Village of the Year 2023 Winner, Kessingland.

The property is spacious and inviting, with a welcoming layout and ample reception areas. The generous lounge and adjoining dining room are drenched in natural light, whilst the bright and airy garden room boasts indoor/outdoor living space, perfect for both summer entertaining and quiet moments of relaxation. A tasteful kitchen is furnished with integrated appliances and plenty of attractive and useful storage, whilst the separate utility room has been designed to accommodate additional white goods. The office is located in a quiet corner of the property, ideal for those who require the flexibility of working from home. The substantial garage also offers the opportunity to be used as a fully functioning workshop. Two well-proportioned bedrooms are located to the side of the property, both with en-suite bathrooms, and the gorgeous dual-aspect primary suite looks out over the landscaped garden. This stunning home sits on a plot with boundless potential providing an opportunity for future internal conversion to additional living space making it a very sound legacy investment. The property currently benefits from pre-planning architectural designs for internal conversion into an annexe and similarly a potential standalone development of a two-bedroom dwelling on the existing plot.
