Nestled within a picturesque country estate, this charming property, originally part of the estate's Saw Mill dating back to 1850, has been lovingly converted into a private dwelling in the 1980s. Boasting a harmonious fusion of timeless period features and contemporary flair, the ground floor welcomes you with a spacious open-plan living/dining area, complete with a central fireplace and French doors leading to the courtyard garden. Additionally, a versatile second reception room, currently utilised as a snug, offers flexibility for a home office or playroom, with a convenient utility room adjacent. The kitchen exudes charm with its wooden work surfaces and Belfast sink, while the first floor features four generously sized bedrooms, each adorned with Velux windows and exposed beams. The master bedroom benefits from an en-suite bathroom with additional access being granted from a door leading to the landing, while the family bathroom offers modern comforts with a double shower cubicle, w/c, wash hand basin and heated towel rail. Outside, a long gravelled drive leads to the front of the property, providing parking for multiple vehicles. The expansive gardens, bordered by a brick wall, offer a tranquil retreat with lush lawns, trees, and shrubs. A delightful walled courtyard garden complements the property, adorned with climbing plants and French doors leading back into the living room. Perfect for families seeking both character and modern living, this property is a must-see!
