Kings Group are pleased to present this charming three-bedroom flat located on the third floor of a well-established residential building. Currently tenanted, the property presents an excellent investment opportunity, particularly for buyers looking to keep the tenants on and purchase in-situ. While the flat benefits from ample natural light and a spacious layout, it is in need of some refurbishment, offering a chance to enhance its value further. The accommodation includes a sizable living area, a well-proportioned bedroom, a functional kitchen, and a bathroom, all of which provide a solid foundation for modernization.

The building is ideally situated in a vibrant area, with easy access to local amenities, transport links, and nearby parks. This property is perfect for investors seeking a reliable rental income, with the added advantage of being able to tailor the space over time. The current tenancy ensures a smooth transition for the new owner, making it a highly attractive prospect for those looking to invest in a desirable location with immediate returns.
