Why We Love It

Location, location, location! Situated at Dun Street, this residence boasts the convenience of a supermarket within walking distance, ensuring daily essentials are always within reach. With a tram stop right outside and the city centre within walking distance, commuting, and exploring the city couldn't be easier. Plus, quick access to key roads like the Parkway facilitates hassle-free journeys further afield. As well as this, Kelham Island itself is a popular and bustling hub of shop, bars, eateries, and cafes - so you'll never be short of things to do!

Why You'll Love It

Upon entering, you're greeted by a spacious hallway with ample storage, setting the tone for the apartment's functionality. To the right, a large 3-piece bathroom suite awaits, complete with an overhead shower for refreshing moments of relaxation.

The main bedroom beckons with its own ensuite and charming floor-to-ceiling windows, flooding the space with natural light. The second bedroom, also a double, features the same captivating windows, ensuring a bright and inviting ambiance.

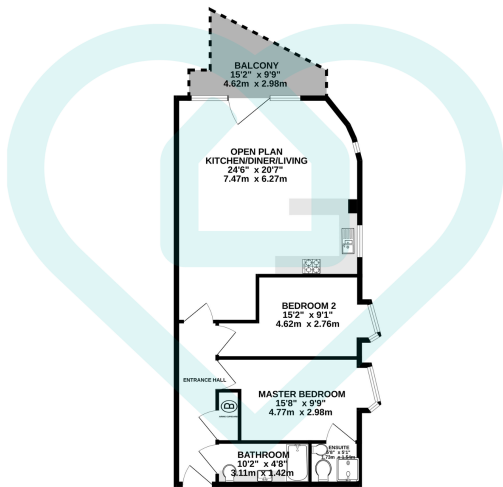

Towards the rear of the apartment lies the stunning open-plan kitchen/lounge, epitomising modern living at its finest. The kitchen exudes sleekness and efficiency, boasting ample worktop space for culinary endeavours. Meanwhile, the lounge area provides the perfect setting for relaxation and entertainment, with space for both a dining area and various furniture arrangements. French doors seamlessly connect the interior to a generous balcony, ideal for enjoying alfresco moments and soaking in the surrounding urban energy.

Throughout the apartment, creative and cheery decor elements add personality and warmth, making it a true haven to call home. And with the added convenience of undercroft parking, every aspect of urban living is effortlessly accommodated at Daisy Spring Works.
