Why You'll Love It

Stepping through the front door of Ramsey Road, you're immediately welcomed by a sense of space and tradition. The home sits proudly on a charming residential street typical of Crookes, where characterful terraces line the road and the community atmosphere is strong. This particular home, however, has a distinct advantage — it benefits from being over the passageway, creating a significantly wider interior footprint than your average Crookes terrace. To the front of the property, the spacious living room basks in natural light through a large front-facing window. With neutral décor and elegant period proportions, it's a warm and inviting place to unwind. There's ample space here for a large sofa suite, media centre, and more — a true family hub.

To the rear of the ground floor, the kitchen/diner stretches across the full width of the property. It's a bright and versatile space, offering plenty of room for cooking, dining, and entertaining. Fitted with sleek units and expansive worktops, the kitchen is well-equipped for the modern lifestyle, while still offering the opportunity for personalisation. The door leads out directly to the garden, allowing for effortless flow during summer gatherings. Upstairs on the first floor, you'll find two generous double bedrooms and the family bathroom. The front bedroom spans the width of the house and boasts abundant natural light and floor space. The second double bedroom looks out over the rear garden and offers a peaceful retreat for guests, children, or a home office. Also on this level is the well-appointed family bathroom, with fixtures, a full-size bathtub, overhead shower, washbasin, and WC.

Venture up to the second floor, and you're greeted by a fabulous third double bedroom nestled in the loft. With a large dormer window to the rear and clever use of space, this room is perfect as a private principal suite, studio, or creative space. Outside, the rear garden offers a charming and manageable green space for both relaxation and play. There's a stone-flagged patio ideal for alfresco dining, and a well-kept lawn bordered by mature shrubs. A practical outhouse offers excellent storage options, whether for gardening tools, bikes, or outdoor gear. There's on-street parking available to the front, in a quiet residential setting with no through traffic.
