Property Description

Millerson Estate Agents are proud to bring this two double bedroom apartment, situated on the second floor of Trelawny House which is in the recently regenerated part of St Austell town, to the market. The apartment complex, which was built in approximately 2012, benefits from having an internal lift with direct access to the parking, secure door entry systems and a communal roof terrace to enjoy the Cornish summer sun from. The apartment itself has two double bedrooms, one with an en-suite, family bathroom and open plan kitchen/diner/lounge with a timber balcony leading off. The property would be ideal for first time buyers or as a rental investment with an expected yield of 6.9%. The apartment is connected to all mains services and falls within Council Tax Band B. Viewings are strictly by appointment only and are recommended to appreciate all that there is to offer. Further information and lease information below.

Location

The property is located within the regenerated part of St Austell town, completed in 2012, and is within walking distance of shops, coffee houses, restaurants and the local leisure centre. In addition it has a bus stop situated directly outside providing travel in and around the county. Furthermore St Austell has a mainline railway station providing direct access to London Paddington and Penzance. The picturesque harbour at Charlestown is only a short drive and has been used as the setting for numerous period dramas and films including The Eagle Has Landed, Mansfield Park and Poldark, and remains popular due to the fabulous setting and quality dining. The area is also home to the breath-taking Lost Gardens of Heligan and of course the world famous Eden Project.
