Location

Sunnyvale Meadow is located in Hewas Water, conveniently situated between Truro and St Austell, and near the beautiful Roseland Peninsula. Amenities are available within the neighbouring village of Sticker, and include a local shop, public house, hairdresser and children's playground. Nearby is Charlestown harbour and the fishing village of Mevagissey. The Roseland Peninsula is one of Cornwall's most unspoilt and beautiful areas, with a wealth of harbour villages and rolling rural countryside. The local waterside villages of St Just-In-Roseland, Portscatho and Portloe, and nearby beaches Pendower and Porthcurnick, encompass this Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, and create a lovely place to live. Cornwall's A30 is within 7.5 miles, and provides easy access to other areas of the county, including the surfing beaches along the north coast

Services

The services to the house include fibre broadband, mains water, electricity and drainage. There is a pumping station situated within the turning area on the estate which ensures smooth drainage for all the properties. There is a management company set up for this which will then be handed over to all residents upon site completion to manage within house. The heating is powered via an air source heat pump which is discreetly placed outside to the rear. There is underfloor heating downstairs with radiators upstairs. The property is freehold tenure and has a 10 year build zone warrantee.
