PROPERTY

This is a stunning Grade II listed cottage, totally refurbished with granite quoins and new windows combines the traditional characteristics of an old cottage and the benefits of modern living. With accommodation comprising sun room/entrance porch, sitting room, dining room, new kitchen, utility room, cloakroom, and on the first floor are three double bedrooms, one main bedroom with ensuite, and a family bathroom/shower room.

Outside there is a lovely cottage-style garden with large decked area ideal for alfresco dining, low maintenance flower beds, timber shed two paths leading to each side, at the rear there is ample parking for numerous cars, and this is approached via an electric opening gate, outside tap.

LOCATION

The location is ideal for those wanting to enjoy all that Charlestown has to offer; the vibrant coastal and historic port has so much to offer, with numerous cafes, restaurants, local shops and the harbour which has been used as a backdrop to many costume dramas including Poldark. St Austell is about two miles away and hosts a vast range of local shops, schooling facilities, cinema, and a mainline railway station. Many other nearby attractions include Fowey, The Eden Project, the fishing port of Mevagissey and the Lost Gardens of Heligan.
