A spacious, modern, high-quality two double bedroom, two-bathroom apartment facing the River Thames. The apartment is located on the first floor (with lift) and has a large open plan fully fitted kitchen. The bright reception room has a balcony facing directly over the River Thames. There are panoramic views of the river which include Tower Bridge and The City of London. Both bedrooms are of generous proportions with built-in storage in the main bedroom. The apartment comes with one secure allocated parking space (stacker system). The building has a daytime porter. The building is located within the unique Rotherhithe Village neighbourhood with its historic pubs, The Brunel Museum, restaurants, and gardens. The large shopping complex at Canada Water is a short walk away. There are excellent public transport links with Rotherhithe Station (London Overground which links into the new Elizabeth Line just 4 stops away) within just a short walk and with Canada Water Station (Jubilee Line and London Overground) close by.
