Coopers of London are delighted to present this well-presented, chain-free studio apartment, ideal for both end users and investors, situated in a highly sought-after pocket of North London.

Located within the private Hilltop House development, this spacious studio benefits from a separate kitchen, solid wood flooring, and includes additional basement storage. The building, dating back to the 1960s, boasts a classic, understated design and is meticulously maintained with attractive communal gardens and on-site resident parking (permit only, non-allocated).

Hilltop House enjoys a prime location on Hornsey Lane, positioned conveniently between Highgate Village and Crouch End Broadway. Residents will benefit from easy access to a wide range of local amenities including restaurants, independent shops, cafes, parks, a swimming pool, and the scenic Parkland Walk.

Excellent transport links are within walking distance, with Highgate and Archway Underground stations, Crouch Hill Overground, and frequent bus services all nearby—making commuting into Central London and beyond straightforward.
