Outside

The property is approached via a right of way from the Council maintained highway to a gravelled parking and turning area in front of the property.

A wicket gate at the side of the property leads to the rear garden with its hugely attractive array of herbaceous plants, flowering shrubs, mature and specimen trees.

Of central focus is the pond and the adjoining countryside that can be enjoyed from the Living Room. To the lower end of the garden is a wooded area where the current vendors keep chickens.

Attractive pathways allow access to all of the garden and there are well placed seating areas in a few locations, making the most of the beautiful surroundings.

A wood shed situated at the side of the property is also included in the sale.

Local Area

The property is located in the pleasant hamlet of Bwlchysarnau which has a chapel and a hall used by several local groups. The hall also offers a cafe, being located on the popular Glyndwr's Way trail. The facilities are maintained and run by volunteers from the village and all proceeds go to maintain the community centre.

The nearest public house is around a mile away in the village of Pantydwr which also has an active community hall.

Whilst the property is positioned in glorious countryside it is just short 10-minute drive to the popular tourist and market town of Rhayader.

Rhayader is a friendly market town (www.rhayader.co.uk) situated in the beautiful upper Wye Valley and has a good range of local facilities such as supermarkets, butcher, grocer, delicatessen, chemist, doctor's surgery, primary school and well equipped leisure centre with two squash courts, gym, swimming pool and jacuzzi. A wider range of facilities including secondary schools is available at Llandrindod Wells (11 miles), Builth Wells (13 miles) and Llanidloes (14 miles) respectively.

The noted Elan Valley (www.elanvalley.org.uk) with its wonderful lakes, reservoirs, dams, mountains and open hills is about 4 miles to the west. The west Wales coast and university town of Aberystwyth is 34 miles distant. The nearest railway station, on the Heart of Wales line, is located at Llandrindod Wells. Excellent road links are afforded by the main north-south road A470, and the east-west A44.
