Holly Barn

East Aberthaw, CF62 3DD

Offers In The Region Of £700,000

HARRIS & BIRT

A charming detached barn conversion located in the quaint village of East Aberthaw. This property consists of three reception rooms, spacious kitchen, utility room and downstairs W.C. With three spacious double bedrooms, single bedroom and two bathrooms to the first floor. A further fifth bedroom to the second floor with natural lighting via Velux windows and exposed wood beams.

Situated in a semi-rural setting, this home provides a peaceful and private location. The exposed beams throughout the house add a touch of traditional charm, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. With a long drive, double garage and additional garage converted into storage space, there is ample parking space available. The property also benefits from a large paddock.

Local facilities include the Blue Anchor which is a thatched pub thought to date from a similar time to this cottage. Just a few minutes drive down the coast is the village of Rhoose with a more extensive range of local facilities including schooling, shops and a railway station on the coast line between Bridgend and Cardiff. The property is just a short walk from the beach and heritage coastline and offers easy access to the good local road network bringing major centres including the capital city of Cardiff, Bridgend, Barry, Llantrisant, Cowbridge etc all within comfortable commuting distance.
