A particularly spacious modern detached house now with four reception rooms including dining room open plan with splendid living room, ground floor shower room adjacent to the study allowing it to be used as a ground floor additional bedroom, utility room, kitchen/breakfast room and the more recent addition, the sun room, a lovely room with high pitch ceiling with attractive 'blue glass' window to the eave with glazed doors leading out to and looking over the patio laid and pleasantly private, easy to maintain rear gardens. Upstairs there are four double bedrooms and two bathrooms. Attached to the house is a particularly spacious double garage and there is plenty of driveway parking. This is a traditional brick build detached family house pleasantly situated in a small residential cul de sac within walking distance of excellent village facilities.

The facilities in Bonvilston include parish church, Red Lion pub, village hall (known as the Bonvilston Reading Rooms) and village shop. Just down the road is Cottrell Park Golf Club with two eighteen hole golf courses. The village lies mid way between the capital of Cardiff and the market town of Cowbridge. In Cowbridge can be found an excellent range of local facilities including schooling of excellent reputation (Bonvilston is in catchment for Cowbridge's highly regarded secondary school), a wide range of shops both local and national, library, health centre, sporting and recreational facilities including leisure centre, rugby club, golf club, cricket club, tennis club etc. Just a few minutes drive to the east is a major out of town shopping centre at Culverhouse Cross with shops including Marks & Spencer, Tesco etc. The good road network brings major centres within easy commuting distance including Cardiff, Bridgend and Swansea.
