Ash Tree House, Church View

Llanblethian, Cowbridge, CF71 7JJ

HARRIS & BIRT

 4  2  4

Tucked away behind the parish church a particularly well appointed detached family house with four living rooms, large well fitted kitchen/breakfast room, four double bedrooms and two bathrooms. The property stands in a good size garden with additional benefit of a paddock immediately to the rear (about 846 sqm). There is a considerable feeling of space in the property with the large reception hall and large landing both of which enjoy the delightful views over the rear garden, paddock and countryside. The front outlook is equally attractive with views over the parish church to the countryside beyond. The property enjoys the privacy of an end of cul-de-sac location with gated driveway serving just two properties.

Although the property is on the very edge of the open countryside with myriad countryside walks, often with sightings of red kites and buzzards, it is still within easy reach of the Llanblethian village facilities including the parish church, reopening Cross Inn, Glyndwr Vineyard and village hall. In the adjoining market town of Cowbridge are excellent local facilities and include schooling of high reputation for all ages, wide range of shops both national and local, library, health centre, sporting and recreational facilities including tennis club, squash club, bowls club, cricket club etc. Llanblethian is situated very much in the heart of the Vale of Glamorgan and surrounded by some delightful countryside with the Heritage Coastline just a few miles to south. Easy access to the good local road network brings major centres including the capital city of Cardiff, Newport, Swansea, Bridgend etc all within comfortable commuting distance.
