IMPRESSIVE COMMUNITY PUB

The Shepherds Inn is a well-established, busy, and much-loved community free house pub in pristine condition throughout. Comprising open plan bar area with a complimentary darts/sports room. To the rear is an attractive and ever popular outdoor area, with luxury living accommodation found to the first and second floors. This renowned community pub is located along Haslingden Road, on the A681, in Rawtenstall, a picturesque town nestled in the affluent Rossendale valley of Lancashire. Rawtenstall is known for its beauty and is increasingly gaining recognition as an up-and-coming area.

Comprising briefly, to the ground floor: the welcoming entrance leads into an open plan bar, and a sports room with darts board to the right. This ever-popular pub caters for approximately 60 covers inside, and currently has several TV's, making it popular with locals for watching sport. There is a well-appointed and immaculate pub kitchen/stock room. Ancillary areas comprising; wine store, basement cellar, ladies & gents WC's. Situated to the first floor is an attractive owner's private apartment comprising; large open plan living space, breakfast kitchen, two double bedrooms, luxury bathroom, separate shower room, and office space. To the second floor there are three currently unused rooms which could be converted in to additional bedrooms creating a large duplex apartment. To the rear is an attractive beer garden which currently caters for approximately 40 covers.
