We are delighted to bring to the market this beautifully presented three-bedroom terraced house, situated in the sought-after area of Copnor. This charming home is ideal for families, offering a perfect blend of traditional features and modern comforts.

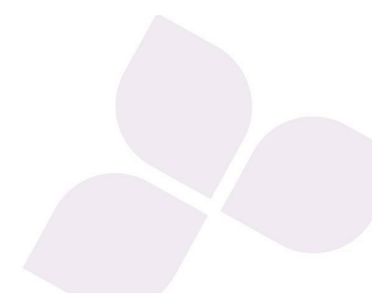

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed into a spacious reception room located to the left. This inviting space boasts a traditional fireplace, a stunning bay window that floods the room with natural light, and elegant wooden flooring.

The modern kitchen features contemporary units and worktops, a fitted oven, and a gas hob—perfect for home cooking. From here, a door leads out to a well-maintained, south-facing garden, ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

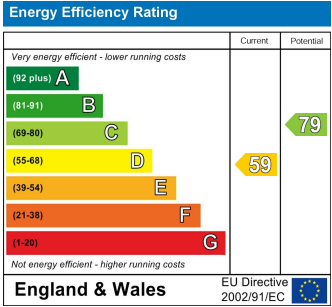

Upstairs, the first floor comprises three generously sized double bedrooms, a stylish family bathroom, and access to a loft room, providing additional versatile space.
