Greencoat Place, SW1P

This ground floor property perfectly blends period features with modern design, and is well-presented and full of character, with original flooring throughout. Additionally, the property benefits from a stylish, modern kitchen, a double bedroom, an inviting living room and bathroom.

Off the bedroom, there is a private patio, offering a secure and peaceful outdoor retreat. Further to this, there is also a communal gated courtyard, only accessible to residents of the building.

This standout apartment would make an excellent pied-à-terre, combining character, convenience, and comfort in one exceptional home.
