Westfield Avenue North, Saltdean, Brighton, BN2 8HP

Situated at the back of Saltdean with direct access onto the South Downs, this unique site offers exceptional potential. Previously operated as The Saltdean Boarding Kennels, the property currently includes a two-bedroom chalet bungalow set within just over six acres of land, together with a number of outbuildings including five stables (all requiring substantial improvement or demolition) and kennel blocks. There is also a flat school lunging area.

The site further benefits from outline planning permission for seven detached dwellings on just over one acre. With outline consent in place, the purchaser has the opportunity to design and deliver their own vision, subject to reserved matters approval.

This is a rare chance to acquire a substantial plot in a sought-after location, whether for redevelopment, equestrian or leisure use, or as a lifestyle project with immediate access to the South Downs National Park.
