Property Details

A charming three double bedroom Victorian house with a South-East facing garden, on a sought-after residential road, balancing modern design with period character. The dual-aspect reception is a warm, bright space, with corniced ceilings, original floorboards and a bay window, with generous space to unwind or dine at the table with garden views. A contemporary kitchen diner sits to the rear, ergonomic with storage down both sides, finished with wooden work surfaces, plus an additional dining area with the breeze flowing through the French doors to the garden. The private garden is a low-maintenance suntrap perfect for savouring the warmer months of the year, with a paved patio area wrapping around the house, leading to a luxurious astro-turf lawn surrounded by planters, for all-year greenery. The first floor of the home provides three comfortable double bedrooms and a beautiful family-sized bathroom, boasting a plunge bath with overhead shower. Completing this delightful period home is the loft storage. Precedent has been set on the road should the purchaser wish to seek the necessary permissions to extend into the side return or loft.
