Property Details

A beautifully extended four double bedroom, two-bathroom Victorian home with a landscaped garden enjoying afternoon sun, moments from a vibrant parade of shops and cafés. Lovingly maintained, this elegant home blends period charm with modern enhancements. A stunning double reception boasts original corning, feature fireplaces, and bay windows, with dividing doors for flexible living. Original floorboards flow into the impressive extended kitchen, featuring sleek cabinetry, parquet flooring with underfloor heating, skylights, and a wood-burning stove. A spacious dining and lounge area opens via bi-fold doors to a landscaped garden with multiple seating areas. Upstairs, four well-proportioned double bedrooms provide comfort and style. The largest spans the width of the home, while the loft conversion offers a light-filled principal suite with a contemporary en-suite. A stylish family bathroom with a roll-top bath and walk-in shower completes the space, alongside a separate WC and utility area. Additional features include ample storage, secondary glazing, gas central heating, and a newly carpeted staircase and hall.
