Property Details

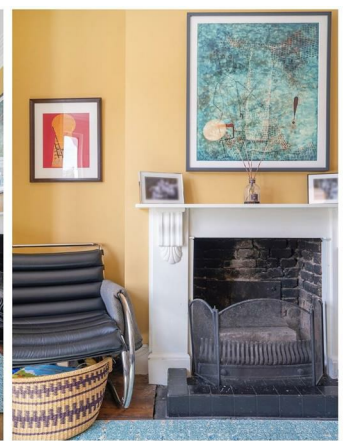

An attractive three double bedroom Victorian house with a charming walled garden, enviably located on the sought-after Pulross Road, a peaceful tree-lined street in the heart of Brixton. Tastefully decorated and brimming with character, this beautifully presented home boasts an elegant double reception room with a bay window, Victorian shutters, ornate cornicing and a feature fireplace. A stylish arched doorway leads to the extended kitchen-diner, complete with a central island, skylights and bi-fold doors opening to a low-maintenance garden, perfect for al fresco dining. Practical features include a downstairs WC and cellar for storage. Upstairs, all three bedrooms are generous doubles. The principal spans the width of the house, with original flooring, feature fireplace and built-in wardrobes. The family bathroom is smartly finished with a rain shower over the bath. There is potential to extend into the loft, subject to permissions. This stunning home is moments from a popular community park with a café and play park.
