Property Details

This charming two-bedroom, two-bathroom split-level Victorian conversion flat boasts a private walled garden, period charm and stylish upgrades. Set over the ground and first floor, the home features a bright reception with bay window and shutters, high ceilings with a beautiful ceiling rose, and space to dine. The semi-open-plan kitchen includes sleek white cabinetry, dark worktops, integrated appliances, and a Miele oven, with direct garden access. The principal bedroom opens onto the garden and is painted in a calming blue, while the second double bedroom upstairs, finished in a rich green, benefits from an en-suite. A traditional family bathroom features subway tiles and a shower over bath. The private garden is paved and low-maintenance, ideal for entertaining. Additional perks include a converted cellar for storage, new double-glazed sash windows, and wooden flooring throughout the entire ground floor. Located on friendly Brading Road near Brockwell Park and Brixton's vibrant centre, with excellent transport links via Brixton, Herne Hill, and Streatham Hill stations.
