This exceptional house has been presented in a most stylish way and is approached from a gravel driveway.

The entrance hall has stairs to the first floor and a cloakroom with wash basin and low level WC.

The sitting room has double doors into the rear garden and a large archway into the dining room which also has double doors into the garden.

The superb fitted kitchen has quartz counter tops with a comprehensive range of cupboards and drawers under and wall cupboards to one side. There are integrated appliances throughout including dishwasher, washing machine, larder style fridge/freezer, ceramic sink, electric oven and gas hob with extractor over. There is a useful study/work room which has been converted from part of the garage.

On the first floor the main bedroom has a shower room en suite and range of fitted wardrobes. There are 2 further bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside there are lovely rear gardens and a super summer house. There is parking for 2 vehicles and a single garage part of which has been converted into a study/workroom
