This highly individual detached property is situated within easy strolling distance of the city centre. The Cathedral city of Chichester boasts an array of amenities including schools, shops and restaurants, as well as excellent travel links.

The property is well-presented throughout and comprises entrance hall with stairs to first floor and doors to the sitting room and downstairs cloakroom.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of stylish units and work surfaces, with oven, hob and space and plumbing for further appliances.

To the first floor there are 2 double bedrooms and part-tiled bathroom with white suite consisting of claw-foot bath, separate shower cubicle, wash basin and WC.

Outside the front provides off-road parking for 2 cars. The secluded rear garden is of a southerly aspect, mainly to lawn, with patio area for outside entertaining and established planting.
