A fabulous period single storey residence nestling in the gorgeous Sussex countryside just north of the Goodwood Estate in the village of Charlton.

The location allows you to explore the wonderful countryside with walks in all directions being in the South Downs National Park. The super popular Fox Goes Free Public House is on your doorstep being only 200 yards away.

This stylish property has been significantly extended and updated to create a wonderful country home with a stunning open plan kitchen with integrated appliances and gorgeous views along the gardens. The lovely informal sitting room has a cast iron log burning stove which creates a cosy ambience. Outside there is ample off road parking within the grounds.

The Goodwood Estate lies a couple of miles to the south of the property with its world famous Glorious Goodwood horse racing course, motor racing circuit which holds the Festival of Speed and Revival meetings. The Goodwood Hotel has a leisure complex and 2 wonderful golf courses.

The property lies about 7 miles to the north of Chichester and is thus within striking distance of the many cultural amenities the cathedral city has to offer such as the Festival Theatre and the Pallant House Gallery.

Under the Estate Agency Act 1979 we declare that the seller of this property is an employee of Sims Williams.
