The Property

This beautifully presented four bedroom detached period property sits in the pretty village of Mary Tavy, just on the edge of the moors. The kitchen breakfast room has a cosy cottage feel with a log burner and a walk-in pantry cupboard, along with a useful utility room adjacent. There is a separate dining room with a large fireplace housing another log burner, and the characterful sitting room over-looks the front gardens. Upstairs, all four bedrooms are doubles, and the main bedroom has an ensuite, with the other three being served by a main bathroom and separate WC.

Location

Mary Tavy is a popular village offering a good range of local amenities including Post Office/ stores, outstanding primary school and public house as well as a church and vibrant village hall. Situated on the edge of Dartmoor National Park, there is easy access to stunning countryside and a wide variety of open walks. The nearby towns of Tavistock and Okehampton are both easily accessible by car or by the regular (rail link) bus service.
