Dogley Villa Court, Penistone Road, Fenay Bridge, Huddersfield, HD8 0LF

Asking price of £320,000

A hugely deceptive, characterful yet modernised three bed/two bath barn conversion with large double garage, parking and courtyard garden close to regarded villages and stunning countryside.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Occupying a select courtyard position within easy reach of regarded village amenities including nearby Kirkburton as well as accessible for Huddersfield and the Holme valley is this most intriguing mid barn conversion. Affording extremely deceptive accommodation which includes a bright and spacious interior with high ceilings and character alongside more neutral, contemporary décor the property may well suit a range of potential buyers including the young family. In brief the accommodation comprises: Hallway with open staircase, understairs store, Utility with w.c, fitted Breakfast Kitchen with door to courtyard garden being open to Dining/Sitting room and step down to spacious Living Room which includes a gas fire.

To the First Floor a bright and spacious open landing with full height ceiling, potential study space and access to three double bedrooms, the Principal being of a particularly generous size with dual aspect and En suite, and additional House Bathroom furnished with contemporary three piece white suite.

Externally, the property is located in a small private courtyard of only four properties with shared lane leading to a large double garage in block with remote door and parking before it. To the front the property has a further small, private paved courtyard garden, ideal for outside dining with gated access to the front. No Vendor Chain.
