WHAT THE OWNERS SAY ABOUT CHERRY COTTAGE

IT IS SET BACK IN A DELIGHTFUL SETTING and all the owners of the ten properties in The Square own the freehold and have a management committee of some of the residents, all decisions are made with the best interests of those living there. There are regular meetings to discuss matters so everyone is aware of any issues or work due to be carried out. Because it is done in this way, it takes over a good deal of the everyday bills and worries that may occur. The outside of the homes are regularly painted, the buildings insurance is covered, a gardener attends regularly as does the window cleaner. This is all covered in the monthly maintenance charge. All each resident has to do is organise contents insurance, energy and Wi-Fi/phone. It really does make things easy and less stressful - and it is far less expensive than the usual 'retirement' places. It is also an ideal lock-up-and-leave property.

LOCATION

Hadlow offering a village atmosphere and a strong sense of community. You'll find essential services within walking distance ,Doctors, Dentist including a bakery, pharmacy, library, and a delightful tea shop. Plus, with easy access to nearby towns like Tonbridge, Tunbridge Wells, and Sevenoaks, you're never far from more extensive shopping and entertainment options.

AGENTS NOTES

The ten houses are all leasehold (long lease of over 970 years) and the freehold is owned by all the residents. There is a small management committee made up of the owners. Residents must be over fifty-five, however, this not like a normal retirement retreat in that currently the maintenance is £151.00 per month. This covers buildings insurance, upkeep of the external buildings, including regular painting, gardening of the common areas and regular window cleaning.
