General

Coity is a charming village located in Bridgend, Wales, known for its historical significance and picturesque surroundings. As part of the Bridgend county borough, Coity offers a peaceful and idyllic setting for residents looking to enjoy a more rural lifestyle while still having access to essential amenities and services.

One of the main benefits of living in Coity is its excellent transport links, with easy access to the M4 motorway connecting residents to nearby cities such as Cardiff and Swansea. The village also has a well-connected bus service, making it easy to travel within the local area and beyond. For those who prefer to travel by train, the nearby Bridgend railway station provides regular services to major destinations across the country.

Despite its tranquil setting, Coity boasts a range of local amenities to cater to residents' everyday needs. The village has a selection of shops, restaurants, and cafes, as well as a community center and leisure facilities for recreational activities. Nearby Bridgend town offers additional shopping options and entertainment venues, ensuring that residents have access to everything they need without having to travel far.

Coity is surrounded by beautiful natural landscapes, with plenty of opportunities for outdoor activities such as hiking, cycling, and exploring the nearby countryside. The village is close to several parks and green spaces, providing peaceful spots for relaxation and enjoying the fresh air.

Families with children will appreciate the excellent schools in the area, including Coety Primary School and numerous secondary school options in Bridgend. The village's close-knit community and friendly atmosphere make it an ideal place to raise a family and build lasting relationships with neighbours.
