B Simmons are delighted to present to the market this light and airy, mid terrace house which has been owned by the current family from new. The property is conveniently located within walking distances of local schooling for all ages, shops and good transport links, and is being offered with no onward chain.

As you enter the property through the front door you walk into an entrance porch and hallway with stairs leading to the first floor. There is a lounge situated to the front of the property with a feature fireplace, a 15'1 kitchen/diner overlooking the rear garden and a utility area with a door out to the garden. On the first floor there are two double bedrooms, both having a built in wardrobe, a family bathroom fitted with a matching white suite, shower attachment over the bath and a shower screen. Outside there is a private rear garden, predominantly laid to lawn with flower and shrub beds, a patio area ideal for outside dining and a gate giving side access. To the front the garden has been converted to create driveway parking with a pathway leading to the front door. Further benefits of this home include double glazing, gas central heating and the property has been rewired.

Trelawney Avenue is located within 0.7 miles walking distance of Langley railway station and Elizabeth line, local shops and falls within catchment for most of Langley's popular primary, secondary and grammar schools. Easy vehicular access for Heathrow, M4, M25 and M40.
