Situated in the historic Stainland Mechanics institute (now known as Abbey Manor) is this two bedroom, luxury apartment. The building has been tastefully converted into four apartments but has managed to retain original features such as the stunning high arch windows and original staircase to the communal area. Being located within such an iconic landmark in Stainland Village and having convenient access to the M62 corridor and both Halifax and Huddersfield Town Centres this will make an ideal home for a professional couple or person.

The accommodation, in brief, comprises: Communal hallway with staircase leading to the apartments, entrance hall, spacious living/dining/kitchen, master bedroom, second double bedroom and bathroom. Externally there is an enclosed garden for communal use and an allocated parking space.
