Welcome to this charming detached stone built farmhouse located on Saddleworth Road in the picturesque village of Greetland, Halifax. This property boasts three bedrooms and two bathrooms, offering ample space for a family or those who enjoy having guests over. One of the standout features of this property is the workshop, barn, and studio, providing endless possibilities for those with a creative flair or in need of extra space for hobbies or work. Additionally, the planning permission for a barn conversion (planning ref: 21/00507/FUL) to create an additional three-bedroom house opens up exciting opportunities for expansion or rental income. The detached garage is perfect for keeping your vehicles secure and protected from the elements. The mature gardens surrounding the property offer a peaceful retreat, while the open views and paddock provide a sense of tranquillity and space rarely found in today's bustling world.

Whether you are looking for a peaceful countryside retreat or a property with potential for development, this detached farmhouse on Saddleworth Road is sure to capture your imagination.
