PLANNING INFORMATION

Full details of the proposed scheme and drawings can be downloaded with the online legal pack.

PROPOSED SCHEDULE ACCOMMODATION - DWELLING 1

The ground floor of the 5-bedroom 8-person dwelling consists of a large open plan lounge connected to a kitchen/diner. This provides a significant area for the living room/reception spaces. Adjoining to the lounge is the entrance hall that connects a double bedroom on the right and a WC on the left of the ground floor.

The first-floor landing adjoins to four separate bedrooms, a bathroom, and a cupboard. Two of the double and one of the single bedrooms are sufficiently sized, the new single bedroom is small, but provides an additional space for the occasional use as a bedroom, that can also be used as a study or alike space.

PROPOSED SCHEDULE ACCOMMODATION - DWELLING 2

The layout for dwelling 2 originally was identical to dwelling 1, however dwelling 1 has had extensions at the rear, which has significantly increased the area.

The ground floor consists of a hall which connects to the combined kitchen/dining room and separate lounge. All the spaces are suitably and sufficiently sized for the size of the dwelling. The hall also contains the stair to the first-floor bedrooms

The first-floor landing adjoins to four separate bedrooms, a bathroom, and a cupboard. Two of the double and one of the single bedrooms are sufficiently sized, the new single bedroom is small, but provides an additional space for the occasional use as a bedroom, that can also be used as a study or alike space

The accommodation of the ground floor has been organised with the reception rooms close to the new entrance doors. Which have been positioned on the east side, where the building was extended in the 1997. The area for the reception rooms are a good size.

The three double bedrooms, all of a good size are situated at the rear and front of the proposed new bungalow, with a bathroom in the existing space, slightly altered in size. An existing wet room has been altered to accommodate a second shower room.

The bungalow is proposed to be accessible and suitable equipped to accommodate this requirement.

BUYER'S PREMIUM

Please be aware all purchasers are subject to a £1000 + VAT (£1,200 inc VAT) buyer's premium which is ALWAYS payable upon exchange of contracts whether the sale is concluded before, during or after the auction date.

GUIDE PRICE

An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

RESERVE PRICE

The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
