ESTATES

Semi detached Hamstone cottage with four bedrooms, parking and set on a quiet road within a short walk to the centre of South Petherton and its plentiful amenities. The property was originally two cottages and believed to date back to the 1850s. The current owner has upgraded many aspects of the property over the last few years and there is still room for you to personalise to your own taste. Entrance area to the front, ideal for dogs, kids, wet clothes etc leads to the inner door which provides access to the spacious lounge diner behind a screened wall with lots of natural light from the southerly windows to the front and all set over a flagstone floor. To the rear is a full length kitchen area and to the side a conservatory/sun room. On the first floor are three bedrooms, two large doubles and smaller double and the recently upgraded family bathroom. On the top floor is another large room with side aspect window and recently installed en suite providing lots of space for a dressing area, storage, double bed and home office with a nice outlook over the garden. To the rear are several storage sheds including an external dunny (ideal for the keen gardener or kids playing outside) and rear access to the garden which runs to the side of the property and is elevated above the street with newly planted hedging.
