

Riverdale Road, TW1

£1,150,000

Situated on the top floor of a beautiful detached period building on the highly coveted Riverdale Road in East Twickenham, this spacious two-bedroom flat offers a rare combination of character, light, and location. Riverdale Road is widely regarded as one of the area's most desirable residential streets, perfectly positioned just moments from the River Thames and within easy reach of both Richmond and St Margarets.

Occupying the entire upper floor of this elegant property, the flat is well laid out and full of charm. It features two generous double bedrooms, a separate kitchen, and a large living room with a striking original fireplace and stunning stained glass windows that provide a lovely interplay of light and colour. The property benefits from several high-quality upgrades, including stylish flooring and modern touches throughout, while retaining its period character.

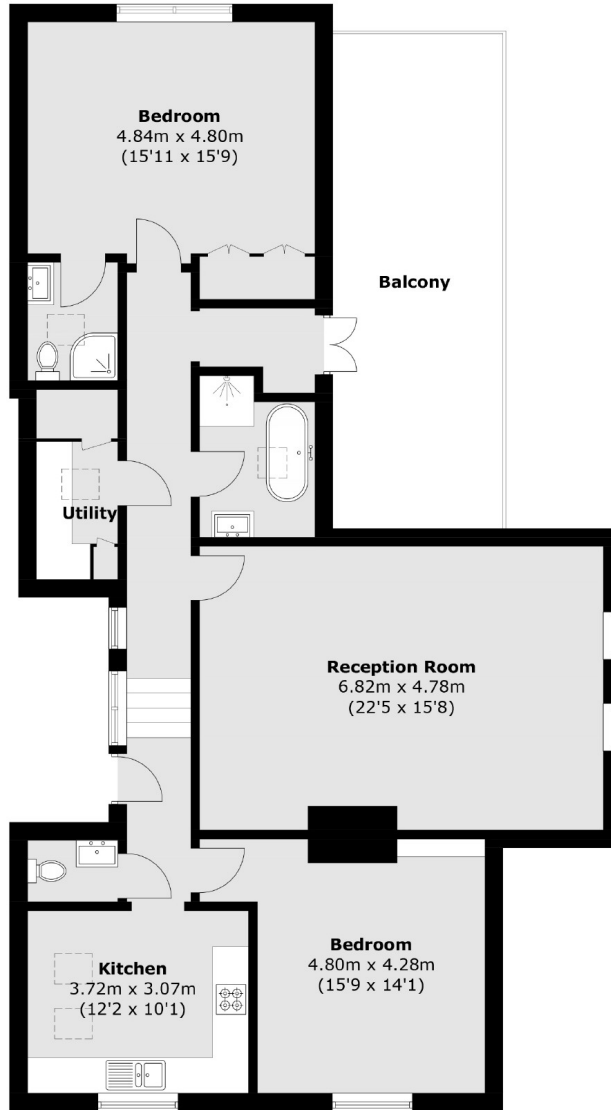

A standout feature is the private roof terrace, offering a peaceful and secluded outdoor space ideal for entertaining or relaxing. With rooftop views and room for seating or planting, it adds an enviable dimension to the home.

The flat is presented in good condition, with much of the hard work already done, yet there remains scope for a new owner to add their own finishing touches and create something truly special.

Set in a prime East Twickenham location, this is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a substantial and character-filled home in a prestigious setting, just a short walk from Richmond Bridge, the riverside, excellent local shops, cafés, and fast transport links into central London.
