

High Street, TW8

£325,000

Set within a modern development on Brentford's riverside, this stylish one-bedroom apartment has been designed to maximise space, light and outlook.

The open-plan kitchen and living area features integrated appliances, opening through full-width glass bi-fold doors onto a generous terrace with far-reaching river views.

The double bedroom includes built-in wardrobes and large windows that draw in natural light, while the bathroom is finished to an exceptional standard with high-quality fittings and elegant contemporary design. Every element of the apartment combines comfort and sophistication, creating a calm and inviting modern home.

The flat also comes with allocated, gated parking, external lockable storage and bike storage too!

Located moments from Brentford High Street and the river's edge, the apartment offers easy access to local cafés, shops and green spaces, as well as excellent transport links into central London via Brentford Station and the A4/M4. A superb opportunity to enjoy modern riverside living in a vibrant and well-connected neighbourhood.
