Agents Note

As a keen fly fisherman, Prime Minister Clement Attlee would often stay at Hill House when fishing The River Test and visiting his cousin, Bartram Waller Attlee who is believed to have lived in the home between 1927 to 1950. Bartram Attlee has a plaque in Romsey, commemorating his world record for the fastest time cycling 21 miles, 180 yards on a penny farthing.

Planning Permission

Planning permission has been granted for additional living space by extending the reception hallway on the ground floor. More information can be found at <https://www.testvalley.gov.uk/planning-and-building> - ref no. 20/02721/FULLS

Ground Floor

The welcoming reception hallway immediately sets the tone for this special home, there is stylish shelving and fitted storage, herringbone flooring and a skylight providing plentiful light. A door opens to the sitting room, a wonderful room with high ceilings, a large bay window, a fireplace and the original butlers bells. The inner hallway is laid with 'Karndean' herringbone flooring which continues into the kitchen/breakfast room. A door leads to the dining/family room and downstairs WC. Currently used as a second sitting room, the dining/family room has two large windows overlooking the gardens and a log burner providing the perfect focal point. The kitchen/breakfast room is a recent addition to the home and is a wonderfully light space. The kitchen has been refitted with a range of soft closing cupboards and drawers, quartz worktops, 'Neff' appliances include an oven, induction hob with extractor canopy over, fridge, freezer and dishwasher. There is ample space for the dining suite and views over the gardens. The laundry room has fitted storage space and space for a washing machine.

First Floor

The large landing provides access to bedrooms one, two, the family bathroom and second floor via the staircase. Bedrooms one and two are both large double rooms, both rooms benefit from pleasant double aspects. The family bathroom has been refitted with a stylish white suite comprising bath with shower over, fitted shower screen, wash basin and WC.

Second Floor

The second floor landing provides access to bedrooms three and four, both of which are double rooms with skylights and access to eaves storage. Either room would serve well as a study/home office.

Outside

The large garden is mainly laid to lawn with established hedging and borders. A private, raised decked area enjoys a easterly, southerly and westerly aspect, enjoying the afternoon and evening sun.

Parking

A five bar gate opens to a driveway providing parking for several vehicle's.
