Above the car barn is large room, which could make an ideal gym, home office or further living room.

Location

Sherfield English is a small village that lies between the Test valley and the New Forest on the old Romsey to Salisbury road. For its size it has a surprising range of services and facilities with a village hall, shop and post office, sports field, nursery, fishing lakes, tea rooms, the Hatchett Inn, a garage and St Leonards church. The village has easy access to the two cathedral cities of Salisbury and Winchester and the commercial centre of Southampton, all having train services to London and elsewhere in the country. For everyday amenities the market town of Romsey is only a short drive. The property is also well placed for Southampton and Bournemouth International Airports, as well as the M27 and M3 motorways. It is also on the edge of the New Forest National Park, the coast is a short drive away and on the eastern side, is the famous River Test chalk stream for fishing.
