Summary

This charming village cottage seamlessly blends traditional character with contemporary living. A stunning ground floor extension has transformed the home, creating a spacious open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area that's bathed in natural light, thanks to a roof lantern and wide bi-folding doors across the rear elevation. Dating back to the turn of the century, the property retains beautiful period features, including high ceilings, sash-style windows, and feature fireplaces, while offering modern comforts throughout. The accommodation includes a practical utility/cloakroom, a family bathroom and three generously sized double bedrooms, the principal bedroom benefitting from its own en-suite. Outside, the rear garden is beautifully maintained, with a large patio, lawned area and a garden shed, while the front of the property provides off-road parking for two vehicles. Despite its peaceful rural setting, the cottage is conveniently located within easy reach of Romsey town centre and is ideally positioned for commuters, with excellent local schools catering to all age groups.

Ground Floor

The entrance hall provides access to the staircase and a useful under stairs storage cupboard. The heart of the home is the impressive, spacious open-plan kitchen, dining and living area, featuring a stylish combination of wooden and gloss base and tall units. The space is filled with natural light from a central lantern and full-width bi-folding doors fitted with remote-controlled blinds. The kitchen boasts a large island breakfast bar and generous work surfaces, complemented by high-quality tiled flooring. Provision is made for a range of appliances, with dedicated plumbing and electrical points thoughtfully positioned for convenience. The kitchen flows seamlessly into the inviting lounge, which features a wood-burning stove set on a matt black slate hearth, alongside a dining area with an attractive open fireplace and engineered wood flooring. A practical utility and cloakroom completes the layout, offering additional storage, space and plumbing for laundry appliances and a convenient WC.

First Floor

The first floor hosts three well-sized principal bedrooms, two with built-in wardrobes. The master enjoys open countryside views to the rear and features a modern en-suite shower room. A contemporary family bathroom completes the layout, fitted with a P-shaped bath and power shower, pedestal basin and low-level WC.

Outside

The rear garden is neatly landscaped, featuring a generous patio terrace adjoining the property. Railway sleepers retain a well-maintained lawn, with a flower bed to one side and mature shrubs at the far end. A large timber shed provides useful storage and the garden enjoys open views across neighbouring farmland, creating a peaceful and private outlook. There is also a side pedestrian gate allowing access to the front of the home.
