Ground Floor

Upon entry, the sitting room is a welcoming space featuring stunning herringbone oak veneer flooring that flows throughout the ground floor, original exposed ceiling beams, fireplace and a sash window to the front aspect. The dining area offers flexibility and connects seamlessly to the kitchen, with stairs to the first-floor landing and handy under-stairs storage. The recently renovated galley-style kitchen is finished with a quartz worktop and a range of built-in appliances, including a fridge, oven, induction hob with extractor and dishwasher. Two pedestrian doors provide direct access to the outside

First Floor

The first-floor landing provides access to the principal bedroom, shower room, and stairs to the second floor. The main bedroom is a spacious double, complete with built-in wardrobes, a feature fireplace and exposed brick walls that add character and charm. The modern shower room is beautifully appointed, with floor-to-ceiling tiles, a large walk-in 'Matki' shower, 'Villeroy & Boch' WC and wash basin, and a convenient towel rail, combining style and functionality

Second Floor

Stairs from the first-floor landing lead to the second floor, opening onto bedroom two which is a spacious double room that would also make an ideal home office or recreational space. Featuring a dormer window and an exposed brick feature wall, it combines natural light with character, creating a bright and inviting atmosphere

Outside

Accessed via a door from the kitchen, the rear garden is a surprisingly spacious and tranquil retreat. Recently re-landscaped, it features a York Stone patio adjoining the house, thoughtfully designed garden beds, a selection of fruit trees, and a newly established hedgerow at the far end. Mainly laid to lawn, the garden 'dog-legs' to an open area enjoying a westerly facing aspect, privacy, and delightful views of Romsey Abbey, creating a versatile outdoor space
