Accommodation

Description

The property comprises a part-occupied, two-storey detached modern office building with self-contained ground and first floor office space. The building is of steel framed construction with a combination of insulated aluminum panel and brickwork elevations. The windows are doubled glazed with powder coated aluminum frames and an attractive curved aluminum roof providing a low maintenance office building.

The ground floor is vacant and accessed via a covered entrance with double doors leading to the office accommodation. The accommodation is primarily open plan together with some part glazed demountable partitioning providing individual offices, meeting rooms and a staff room with kitchenette. There are 3 separate W/Cs (1 male, 1 female and 1 disabled) a shower room and a kitchen. The unit has Grade A specification including raised floors, suspended ceilings and recessed LG7 lighting.

The first floor is let to the Royal College of Nursing and is accessed via a dedicated, covered entrance leading to a foyer where there is lift access to the first floor together with a staircase. At first floor, the lobby provides 4 w/cs (1 male, 2 female and 1 disabled) and access to the office accommodation. The offices are predominately open plan with some part-glazed demountable partitioning providing a kitchen area, three individual manager's offices/meeting rooms lining front of the premises. The unit is also of Grade A specification including raised floors, suspended ceiling, recessed LG7 lighting and air conditioning. The building is surrounded by a paved area with cycle racks and grassed verge.

Parking

Externally there are 23 allocated tarmacadam surfaced car parking spaces, currently designated 11 for the ground floor and 12 for the first floor.
