ANTI - MONEY LAUNDERING

Anti-money laundering ('AML') legislation require estate and letting agents to verify the identities of parties involved in property transactions and to determine the legality of funds supporting a property transaction. A party interested in this property transaction must provide certain AML information and documents to the [seller's] [landlord's] agent(s). This also includes documents on those who may run and own the interested party, or the ultimate beneficiary of the property transaction.
