Location

Headcorn is a popular village in the heart of the Weald of Kent, affectionally known as the 'Garden of England'. There is a village hall, Primary School, library, Post Office, bank, church, playing fields, a pub and a thriving High Street. Headcorn has a mainline station to Charing Cross / Cannon Street in approximately 55-60 minutes.

There is access to a number of major road routes including the M20 and the international airports of Gatwick and Heathrow, as well as the Channel Ports. Ashford International Station is only a short drive away and provides regular services to the Continent and a high-speed railway service to St Pancras in 38 minutes.

The area is particularly well known for the quality of schools, both in the private and state sectors. Notable schools in the area include Cranbrook, Benenden, Sutton Valence, and Sutton Valence Preparatory School. Excellent Grammar Schools can be found in both Maidstone, Tonbridge and Ashford.
