The village of Yoxall has a popular pub, primary school, excellent health centre and village hall together with countryside walks. It also falls in catchment of the highly regarded John Taylor Academy in the neighbouring village of Barton under Needwood which has a wide range of amenities. For the commuter, Lichfield and Burton on Trent are each within easy reach both of which have train stations, and the A38 provides access to major cities.

The property is accessed via the side entrance hall having exposed beams and leading into a spacious dining room again exhibiting lovely exposed period beams and having stairs off together with a half glazed door out to the rear courtyard garden.

Off the dining room is an attractive fitted kitchen having a range of base and wall units surmounted by wood effect worktops with inset 1.5 bowl composite sink with mixer tap and tiled splash backs, inset Rangemaster slot in cooker with extractor hood over, further appliance spaces with plumbing for an automatic washing machine, laminate flooring and a wall mounted cupboard housing the gas boiler.

A lovely large panelled period door opens into the bright sitting room which has a brick recessed fireplace housing the wood burner together with dual aspect windows to either side. Off this is a very useful study or bedroom three which has a wonderful vaulted ceiling with superb exposed timbers and a cloakroom leading off with a WC and wash basin.

Stairs ascend from the dining room and lead to the landing which has an exposed beam, loft access and a useful built in storage cupboard. To the front of the cottage is a lovely master bedroom enjoying dual aspect to both front and rear and having useful built in twin wardrobes. Adjacent to this is a second useful sized bedroom also with dual front and side aspect. These are served by an attractive bathroom equipped with a bath in tiled surround having mixer shower over and glazed screen, pedestal wash hand basin, low level WC, chrome heated towel rail and laminate flooring.
