The Cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds lies in West Suffolk at the heart of East Anglia famous for its Benedictine Abbey. The town has extensive facilities and amenities to cater for all walks of life and has exceptional transport links. The A14 bypasses the town and links the Midlands with the East coast. London via the M11 is 60 miles. The railway station offers services to Cambridge, Norwich and Ipswich with connections for London. A commuter rail link is available at Stowmarket.

This spacious detached house occupies a lovely position in one of the most desirable areas of the town with quick access to countryside walks in one direction and the town centre amenities in the other. The property has been cleverly enlarged to provide spacious, well-appointed accommodation to suit a range of different lifestyles and is further complemented by a double garage, extensive parking and a large garden. In all about 0.36 acres.
