JOCELIN HOUSE, 16 NORTHGATE AVENUE, BURY ST. EDMUNDS, SUFFOLK. IP32 6BB

The Cathedral town of Bury St. Edmunds lies in West Suffolk at the heart of East Anglia famous for its Benedictine Abbey. The town has extensive facilities and amenities to cater for all walks of life and has exceptional transport links. The A14 bypasses the town and links the Midlands with the East coast. London via the M11 is 60 minutes. The railway station offers services to Cambridge, Norwich and Ipswich with connections for London. A commuter rail link is available at Stowmarket.

A stunning Victorian family home of grand proportions having undergone a significant programme of renovations during the current owner's tenure and occupying a sought-after address in the Bury St. Edmunds town. Understood to formerly have been a dormitory for residential pupils of Culford School (Methodist Secondary School at the time), the accommodation schedule of approximately 5,600 square feet now comprises 9 bedrooms, 5 bathrooms, 4 reception rooms and a stunning bespoke kitchen/breakfast room which leads on to the rear gardens. There is off-road parking to the front of the property with private gardens to the rear and an expansive dining terrace spanning the breadth of the property. Internally, an annexe has been created which idyllically suits multigenerational living, while remaining flexible enough for use as one substantial dwelling, subject to individual preferences.

A beautifully presented family home with an accommodation schedule in excess of 5,600 sq.ft. With an integral annexe, off-road parking and generous gardens.

ENTRANCE HALL: With parquet flooring and doors to principal rooms on the ground floor with separate lockable door leading to the annexe.

DRAWING ROOM: With high ceilings, ornate cornicing and dual aspect sash windows to the front and side elevations. The focal point for the room is provided by the inset fireplace with an inset multi-fuel burning stove, stone hearth and surround.

KITCHEN/BREAKFAST/LIVING ROOM: Appointed to a high specification with a handmade bespoke range of matching wall and base units with Quartz worksurfaces over. Integrated appliances include a fridge, separate freezer, dishwasher, ceramic butler sink inset with mixer tap and boiling water tap. There is space for gas cooker with hob over. Integral PANTRY and wine chiller integrated into the central island. The room is finished with parquet effect flooring and French style double doors opening to the terrace abutting the rear of the property with an 8ft10 wide wall of glass overlooking the rear gardens and open plan access leading to the:-

SITTING ROOM: A cosy space flowing nicely from the kitchen and well suited to informal entertaining. Inset open fireplace with ornamental surround and dual aspect windows to the rear and side elevations. Of note is the elegant metal work in the ceiling which has been tastefully retained by the current occupiers.

DINING ROOM: A beautiful bay fronted dining room with high ceilings and hallmark period features including elegant cornicing, picture rails and inset ornate fireplace on raised hearth with tiled surround.

CLOAKROOM: With a white suite comprising WC and hand wash basin.
