The Cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds lies in West Suffolk at the heart of East Anglia famous for its Benedictine Abbey. The town has extensive facilities and amenities to cater for all walks of life and has exceptional transport links. The A14 bypasses the town and links the Midlands with the East coast. London via the M11 is 60 miles. The railway station offers services to Cambridge, Norwich and Ipswich with connections for London. A commuter rail link is available at Stowmarket.

This elegant detached Tudor style home was constructed in the 1950's by a reputable Bury St. Edmunds builder and is offered to the market for the first time in over 70 years. It is fair to suggest that the property requires significant updating/modernisation but is nonetheless well presented and offers considerable character (fireplaces, wood panelled walls, wood block flooring, etc) throughout. Further benefits include a garage, extensive parking and lovely south-west facing walled garden.
