Description

The unit comprises a small self-contained ground floor retail unit with a period timber shop front re-fitted by the current tenant as a barbershop. The unit is smoothly presented with wooden flooring and simple pendant lighting with an internal WC to the rear of the shop. The unit also benefits from a reduced-height basement storage area.

Location

The property is located in a local parade on Islington Green, which forms part of and lies adjacent to the fashionable and popular Camden Passage area of Islington, supporting a diverse retail offering ranging from celebrity fashion boutiques, chocolatiers, antiques ethical fashion, jewelers, interior design, bars and restaurants. Nearby occupiers include Chipotle, Pizza Express, Reiss, Tesco Metro, Crêpeaffaire, and numerous independent retail, and quality eateries and takeaways. The property is well connected being a short walk from Angel underground station, providing access to the Northern Line.
