Sell Right Estate Agents are pleased to bring to the market this substantially sized and charming, four bedroom, Victorian style semi detached property in the heart of Church Village. The property has been tastefully decorated by the current owners and they have retained a number of original features throughout the house such as reclaimed oak doors and feature fireplaces which really suits this style of property. The property is conveniently located by being within short walking distance to all local amenities and transport links as well as the well thought of Garth Olwg Welsh language schools.

The ground floor accommodation boasts a welcoming entrance hallway, bay fronted lounge, sitting room with a log burner and a spacious contemporary kitchen/diner which benefits from integrated appliances. The first floor showcases a roomy landing area which offers access to a modern bathroom and four well-proportioned bedrooms. Externally the property boasts well maintained and tastefully decorated garden to the front. To the rear you will find a south facing sun terrace laid with artificial turf as well as off road parking for multiple vehicles. Please contact Sell Right Estate Agents to book your viewing on this uniquely stunning home.
