The Property

An attached waterside residence, built in the late 1980's with a southerly aspect directly overlooking the marina basin, which all principal rooms and generous size balcony take full advantage of.

The width of the direct water frontage is greater than most, with direct access onto its adjacent mooring pontoon, sufficient in size to accommodation a circa 30ft boat. The split-level patio/ sun terrace is ideal for alfresco dining. The waterside edge of the patio area has fitted retaining safety railings. In addition to a detached single size garage with driveway, location directly opposite the house, there is further off-road parking directly in front of the main residence.

Offering 1631 square feet of accommodation, the rooms are comfortably proportioned and thoughtfully arranged over its ground and first floors.

An internal inspection will enable the properties many fine attributes to be fully appreciated.
